ABOUT THE AUSTRALIAN PRAYER NETWORK

The Australian Prayer Network does not charge for any ministry it undertakes so that no one is excluded from attending based on financial considerations. Therefore there are no up-front registration fees charged and all accommodation (where requested) and meals are provided and paid for in faith by the Australian Prayer Network. This School is both a live-in and live-out School with a mixture of accommodation and meals provided in different measure to different delegates according to their choice. In addition, there are speakers' expenses to be covered.

Delegates will therefore be asked to share in a "Faith Offering" during the School to cover all the above expenses and to invest into the work of the Australian Prayer Network across the nation. We believe this is an essential element of the School as we seek to prepare to take delegates to a new level of faith and trust in God and to experience in part what it means to be "totally available and radically obedient" to God.

IMPORTANT PRIVACY INFORMATION

When enrolling for this Watchmen School you agree to have the Australian Prayer Network (APN) record your details for the purpose of tracking school levels you have completed and to receive occasional emails advising when further schools are available.
